

“A NUTCRACKER TALE”
Sunday, January 29, 5:00

Children Dancing presents an original “Nutcracker Tale”, with delightful holiday party scenes, larger than life dancing dolls, and a soldier’s march. At the party, odd hostess Drosselina presents Marie and her friends with a mysterious Nutcracker, which they break! The children go to sleep and dream all sorts of fantastic adventures about this poor, broken, perhaps magical Nutcracker. The Nutcracker turns into a prince soldier, and with the aid of Marie and her friends, defeats evil mice in an exciting battle scene. After a trip on board snowflakes, the children are taken to the castle of the Sugar Plum Fairies who dance for them along with Chinese, Spanish, Arabian, Swiss and Russian dancers. They witness a wonderful circus dance before they are taken back home riding on the wind of the Waltz of the Flowers, promising the return of Spring. Under the direction of Beth Jucovy with Dance Visions NY Dancers Yuki Ishiguro and Nichole Piacenza.

~TICKETS~
 Tickets are free and production is open to the public.
 For information call 516 482 2621 or visit www.newyorkdancing.net

At St. Paul’s
 Ministry Center
 3 St. Paul’s Place
 (corner of Grace Ave.)
 Great Neck, NY
 11021jkh

A Nutcracker Tale! and
 Break Dance Demonstration

Sunday,
 Jan. 29,
 5:00 PM

Ballet barre demonstration in the studio at 4:00

